

GEOGRAPHY - Roots to the Future

Key Vocabulary

Geographical enquiry	An investigation of a geographical question or issue.	Analyse	To study something in close detail.
OS maps	The official maps of Great Britain produced by the Ordnance Survey.	Interpret	To decide on the meaning of something.
Questionnaire	A set of questions used to collect information or data.	Evaluate	To form an opinion or judgement on something after considering it carefully.
Interview	Talking to people to gather information.
Risk assessment	To look at what hazards and risks we might come across and how to keep us safe.
Hazard	A potential danger that could affect our safety.
Data	A collection of facts or figures that can be analysed to provide information.
Services	A system that supplies a public need, for example waste collection.

AERIAL VIEWS OF WREN'S NEST

SEVEN SISTERS CAVERN

Map of Wren's Nest Nature Reserve.

Geography - Roots to the Future

We can break a fieldwork enquiry down into six stages.

RISKS

What next steps could we take to change our local area for the better?

- Write to the local council and show them our evidence then ask for extra bins.
- Invite a councillor to come and visit us. Present our suggested solutions to them.
- Write to local businesses and ask them to fund new bins.