

Legends of long ago...

Aethelflaed Lady of Mercia

Invade	To enter a place or country by force to take control.
Anglo Saxons	People who lived in England long ago, before kings.
Vikings	People from Scandinavia who travelled to take land and treasure.
Uprising	When people fight together against rulers because it feels unfair.
Army	A group of people trained to fight and protect land.
Legend	A story from long ago, sometimes true, sometimes imagined.
Saint	A very good or holy person remembered for doing good.
Persevere	To keep trying and never give up, even when hard.

- A female leader in Anglo-Saxon England
- Daughter of Alfred the Great
- Lived over 1,000 years ago
- She was known as the Lady of Mercia
- She helped protect her people from Viking attacks
- She built strong towns and walls to keep people safe
- She was clever and made important decisions
- She is remembered for being strong, wise, and brave
- She showed that women could be leaders too

Robert the Bruce

Owain Glyndwr

- King of Scotland
- Lived over 700 years ago
- Wanted Scotland to be free from England
- He fought many battles but did not always win at first.
- There is a famous story about a spider, the spider kept failing then trying again, this reminded Robert to never give up
- He kept fighting and later won an important battle
- He is remembered for being brave and determined

- A Welsh leader and prince from Wales
- Lived over 600 years ago
- Was unhappy because the rulers from England were in charge
- He gathered people to fight for fairness
- Many people in Wales supported him
- He was crowned Prince of Wales by his supporters
- He won some battles and became very powerful for a time
- In the end, he disappeared and was never captured
- He is remembered as a hero in Wales

